

From: Ray Stanke
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/16/02 12:06am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I am a taxpayer and the government continues to waste money. Impose light penalties to insure compliance with consumer requests, and get on with life. The battle is NOT with people who have and continue to provide jobs and security. Like the movie, Field of Dreams; if someone out there can build a better system, people will buy and not buy m/s.

Stop this stupid and time consuming process and concentrate good things that have been and can be done.